

The First Step, a nonprofit child care agency in Belvidere, Illinois, is currently accepting applications to fill six open positions. Board member positions are volunteer opportunities, and The First Step is seeking community-oriented, engaging individuals who are currently residing in Boone County for possible candidacy.

If you are a community leader, business owner, parent, or citizen who cares deeply about early childhood development, this may be a wonderful opportunity for you. Duties of board members include:

- Reliable attendance at monthly board meetings
- Legal compliance and financial oversight
- Strategic planning
- Participation in fundraising efforts on behalf of the organization
- Organizational development and resource provision

Those who are interested in applying for a board position are encouraged to contact Executive Director Sue Wilson at firststepforkids@aol.com
